Numb. 10173.

The London Gazette,

Published by Authority.

From Saturday January 9, to Tuesday January 12, 1762.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of December, 1761,

PRESENT,

The KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed by His Royal Proclamation bearing Date the Twenty Second Day of July laſt, to promiſe and declare, (amongſt other Things) That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every able Seaman, and of Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, ſhould be paid to every ſuch able and ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who ſhould, on or before the Twelfth Day of September laſt, enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majeſty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board ſuch Tenders as ſhould be employed for raiſing Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And that a Bounty of Thirty Shillings ſhould be paid to every able bodied Landman not above the Age of Thirty Five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years who ſhould, on or before the ſaid Twelfth Day of September, in like Manner voluntarily enter themſelves to ſerve in His Majeſty's Royal Navy; and that a Reward of Two Pounds for every able, and Thirty Shillings for every ordinary Seaman, ſhould be paid to any Perſon who ſhould diſcover any Seaman or Seamen who ſhould ſecret themſelves, ſo that ſuch Seaman or Seamen ſhould be taken for His Majeſty's ſaid Service. And whereas the Time limited for paying the ſaid Bounties and Rewards hath been extended to the Twelfth Day of this Inſtant December; And it being judged expedient for His Majeſty's Service, that the ſame ſhould be continued for ſome longer Time; His Majeſty, with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the ſaid Bounties and Rewards, be prolonged and extended from the ſaid Twelfth Day of this Inſtant December, to the Thirty Firſt Day of January next inclusive. Whereof all Perſons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themſelves accordingly.

Hen. Fane.

St. James's, January, 12.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir James Lowther, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants and principal Inhabitants of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the joyful Occaſion of your Marriage. Although your Majeſty's Happineſs, as a Prince, was incapable of receiving any Acceſſion by an Encreaſe of your Glory Abroad, or of the cordial Affection of your Subjects at Home; yet, to the Completion of your domeſtic Felicity, was wanting, a Princeſs adorned with every ſocial Virtue and amiable Accompliſhment, capable of ſweetening the Cares of Government, and inſpiring Delight into the Breaſt of a Prince of your Majeſty's exalted Sentiments: Such your Majeſty hath found in the Perſon of our now moſt gracious Queen, which, from the Intereſt we have in every Thing relative to your Majeſty's Happineſs, fills our Hearts with inexpreſſible Joy. This, Sir, we regard as the Conſummation of your earthly Felicity, which leaves us nothing to wiſh for, even in our warmeſt Zeal for your Majeſty, but that, together with your Royal Conſort, you may long enjoy the Fruits of it in a numerous and virtuous Iſſue, capable of reflecting a Luſtre and Dignity upon the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms, which ſhall be the invariable Object of our moſt fervent Prayers to the Almighty Protector of all virtuous Princes.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Morpeth, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Duncombe, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Morpeth in the County of Northumberland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Aldermen, and Free Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Morpeth, beg Leave to addreſs your Majeſty with ſuch Sentiments of Joy, as naturally ariſe in the Breaſts of a grateful People, at every Addition of Happineſs to your Majeſty and your auguſt Houſe.

Permit us therefore, Sir, in the Midſt of that univerſal Joy, which reigns throughout every Part of theſe Kingdoms, to congratulate your Majeſty, in the moſt humble and ardent Manner, on your Majeſty's auſpicious Marriage with the Princeſs Charlotte of Mecklenburgh Strelitz; a Princeſs, moſt eminently diſtinguiſhed by every Accompliſhment, that may engage your Majeſty's Affections, and add a Luſtre and Dignity to your Crown.

With what Satisfaction do we reflect on the Motives, which diſpoſed your Majeſty to this amiable Alliance! Motives, determined by the Beauties of the Mind, by a zealous Attachment to the Proteſtant Cauſe, and to the Intereſts of that illuſtrious Family, which we ſhall always conſider as raiſed up by Divine Providence, for fixing the Stability of this Government on the ſolid Foundations of Religion and Liberty.

What pleaſing Hopes may we reaſonably entertain of a Succeſſion of Bleſſings to theſe Kingdoms, from ſuch an happy Union of Hearts, from ſuch an happy Conjunction of every Virtuous and Religious Principle, that can protect and preſerve the Glory of God and the Honour of this Nation!

That Poſterity may amply enjoy the Fruits of that glorious Proſpect we have before us, of National Happineſs, let us offer up our united Prayers to Almighty God, that He may bleſs your Majeſties with a numerous Race of Princes, equally zealous in promoting the Service of God, equally unwearied in ſecuring the Civil Liberties of theſe Kingdoms.

Given under the Seal of our Corporation, this Fourth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty one.

The following Addreſs of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven, has been preſented to the Queen by Sir James Lowther, Bart.: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of the Port of Whitehaven.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Merchants and Principal Inhabitants of Whitehaven, humbly beg Leave to preſent our unfeigned Compliments of Congratulation upon your Majeſty's auſpicious Marriage with our moſt gracious Sovereign. From ſuch an Union, by which to the higheſt Dignity are joined the moſt virtuous Sentiments, nothing can enſue but Happineſs, both private and publick. And as we doubt not Heaven intended your Majeſty as the Inſtrument of the greateſt Bleſſings to our Sovereign and His Kingdoms, ſo we moſt ardently wiſh your Majeſty may long continue a joyful Sharer in the Happineſs you give.

That your Majeſty may long continue to reap the Fruits of this bleſſed Union with a Prince, not more Illuſtrious for the Dignity of his Station, than for the Eminence of His Virtue, in a numerous and virtuous Offspring; that you may have the Satisfaction of forming their tender Minds upon the noble Principles of Honour, and according to the Model of His Majeſty's own Royal Example; and that you may live to ſee them the moſt diſtinguiſhing Ornaments of His Majeſty's Crown, (which we Regard as the higheſt Pitch of human Felicity) is the moſt fervent Prayer of, your Majeſty's moſt loyal, and moſt devoted Servants.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Grand Juries, and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmorland, has been preſented to the Queen by Sir James Lowther, Bart. and John Upton, Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs Her Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Grand Juries and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmorland, at the General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace at Appleby, aſſembled on Monday the 5th Day of October, and at Kendal, on Friday the 9th Day of October, 1761.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE, the Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, Clergy, Grand Juries and Freeholders of the County of Weſtmorland, beg Leave to add our Voice to the general Acclamations of a joyful and applauding People. Born to make a great Monarch and a free Nation happy, permit us to congratulate your Majeſty on that rare State of Felicity. Auſpicious Nuptials! in which ſo many great and amiable Virtues are united, and ſure to be tranſmitted to your lateſt Poſterity. May your Majeſty long wear the Diadem you have ſo well deſerved, and receive, from a grateful Nation, every Tribute that is due to Royal Worth and Goodneſs.

Peterſbourg, Dec. 8. The Empreſs having caught Cold at the Opera, has been indiſpoſed for ſome Days, and obliged to keep her Room; ſo that the Anniverſary of her Imperial Majeſty's Acceſſion to the Throne, which was on Sunday laſt, was not ſolemnized with the uſual Ceremonies. But the Day before, being the Grand Dutcheſs's Name-Day, the Foreign Miniſters had the Honour to make their Court to her Imperial Highneſs in the Morning; and in the Evening there was a Ball and Supper at Court.

Thionville, Dec. 22. The laſt Diviſion of the Iriſh Regiments, coming from our Army on the Upper Rhine, are arrived here, where they wait for further Orders.

Magdebourg, Dec. 29. General Platen's Corps was expected to arrive at Berlin on the 28th, and to make ſome Halt there for Refreſhment. Prince Henry having thought proper to extend his Quarters of Cantonment, General Seydlitz has been ſent to Leipzig; but the Head Quarters continue ſtill at Barnitz.

Liege, Dec. 30. The French King having named M. Lupcourt de Rouville, his Miniſter Plenipotentiary to our Cardinal Prince, that Gentleman arrived laſt Tueſday Evening.

Hambourg, Jan. 1. We have received Advice here, that the Commandant of Colberg, Colonel Heyden, has, at laſt, been obliged to ſurrender the Town, by Capitulation, to the Ruſſians on the 17th paſt, after having defended himſelf near Six Months.

The Ruſſians, from being Maſters of this Fortreſs, have ſince ſpread themſelves in Pomerania, to take up their Winter Quarters; and General Berg has eſtabliſhed his at Stargard.

The Pruſſian General Platen had reached Berlin, in his Way, as is ſuppoſed, to join Prince Henry in Saxony; as had the Prince of Wurtenberg, Stettin, on his March into the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg Schwerin.

Admiralty Office, January 11.

His Majeſty's Ship the Richmond, commanded by Captain Elphinſton, being on a Cruize, on the Coaſt of Spain, fell in with and took on the 4th Inſtant, ſeven Leagues from Cape Pinas, the Bearnoiſe, a French Snow Privateer, belonging and bound to Bayonne, of 14 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 82 Men. She came from Corunna that Morning.

The Tartuffe Cutter has taken and brought to Portſmouth a ſmall French Privateer.

His Majeſty's Ship the Brune, commanded by Captain Tonyn, in her Way to Liſbon, with Diſpatches, on the 28th of November laſt, fell in with a French Privateer Snow of 14 or 16 Guns, off Cape Finiſterre, which miſtaking the Brune for a Merchant Ship, came along Side of her, and obliged Captain Tonyn to fire a Broadſide into her before ſhe would ſurrender. The Wind blowing very hard with a great Sea, Captain Tonyn found it impoſſible to take Poſſeſſion of the Privateer; and as ſhe was too much diſabled to follow him, he therefore proceeded on his Voyage without her, chuſing rather to quit his Prize than loſe a favourable Wind, by lying by till the Weather might become moderate.

Admiralty Office, January 12.

His Majeſty's Ship the Tweed, commanded by Captain Paſton, being on a Cruize, fell in with a French Snow Privateer, on the 5th Inſtant, in the Night, off Scilly, and took her on the 6th at Noon about 17 Leagues S. S. W. from the Ram Head. She proved to be the Duke d'Ayen of 16 Six Pounder Guns, and 120 Men, belonging to Dunkirk, commanded by M. Jean Duchesne.

St. James's, January 4, 1762.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that the Audit-House of New College, in the University of Oxford, hath, within these Twelve Months past, been robb'd of several Sums of Money, amounting, in the Whole, to Five Hundred Pounds and upwards: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, is, hereby, pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover His Accomplice, or Accomplices, in the said Fact, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BUTE.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Society of New College, in the said University of Oxford, do, hereby, promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to any Person or Persons, making such Discovery as aforesaid: To be paid by the said Society upon the Conviction of any one, or more, of the Offenders; and the said Society will, moreover, defray all the Expences which may arise on account of such Discovery; the Members thereof being determined to spare neither Pains nor Expence towards detecting and bringing to Justice the Perpetrators of this daring Villainy.

John Purnell, Warden.
